(3) Ninth ASEAN Youth Day Meeting (AYDM IX) opens

YANGON, 10 Aug- The opening ceremony of the Ninth ASEAN Youth Day Meeting (AYDM IX) was held at the Hotel Equatorial this morning, addressed by Chairman of the Central Committee for Hosting the AYDM IX Minister for Social Welfare, Relief and Resettlement Maj-Gen Sein Htwa.

The minister said. Firstly, I am very pleased to meet our friends from ASEAN nations on this auspicious occasion. All members of delegation are warmly welcomed.

In accordance with the resolution of the ASEAN Ministerial Meeting on Youth of 1992, 8th August of every year is recognized as ASEAN Youth Day and from that day onwards, ASEAN Youth Day is held in August of the year. The 8th meeting of ASEAN Youth Day was held in Vietiane, Laos, in August Last year. And now, in the year 2000, ASEAN Youth Day which falls on 8th August will be held in Yangon, the capital of Myanmar, in conjunction with International Youth Day, which falls on 12th August.

Development of youth programmes and development of youth policies were adopted by the Second ASEAN Ministerial Meeting on Youth which was held in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, in November 1997. The sub-committee of ASEAN Youth Affair implemented the programmes in accordance with development of youth policies.

The present meeting accepted by the Union of Myanmar as a host-nation, will discuss the following.

- To disseminate ASEAN information, the idea of self-reliance unity, stability, peace and prosperity among ASEAN youth.

- To promote policies, Social and cultural values among ASEAN youth without discrimination.

- To implement development policies and demonstrate that the force of youth is essential human resources f6r regional development. In addition, the following topics described in Kuala Lumpur Agenda will be discussed:

- To promote knowledge of ASEAN.

- To develop human resources in keeping up with rapid economic progress.

- To gain lasting success.

- To upgrade research and development of effective website technology and youth affairs.

- To upgrade and preserve values of ASEAN cultural norm.

- To upgrade development of youth on the same level as national development.

- To enhance increased participation of non-Governmental organizations in activities of youth.

At today s meeting, we will have a chance of exchanging views on youth development plans, experiences and informations related to youth. In order to have peace, stability, development and prosperity of ASEAN region, we have to enhance the role of youth and to search for ways and means to get the cooperation of the youth.

As the Theme of the meeting is youth and promotion on cultural identity we will have a chance to know and understand different traditions and culture of ASEAN nations. We believe that knowledge of culture could lead to better understanding among ASEAN nations and more cooperation on youth development programme. Also present on the occasion were Minister at the State Peace and Development Council Chairman's Office Brig-Gen Abel, Minister for Foreign Affairs U Win Aung, Minister for Information Maj-Gen Kyi Aung, Minister for Culture U Win Sein, Minister for Education U Than Aung, Minister for Sports Brig-Gen Thura Aye Myint, Minister for Health Maj-Gen Ket Sein, Minister at the Prime Minister's Office U Than Shwe, deputy ministers, ambassadors and charges d Affaires of ASEAN member countries, the ambassador of Republic of Korea, charges d Affaires of the Embassies of the People's Republic of China and Japan, Chairman of the ASEAN Subcommittee on Youth (ASY) Y Bhg Dato Paduka Hj Talib Bin Hj Berudin, senior official of the ASEAN Secretariat Mr Yong Chanthalangsy, delegates of ten ASEAN nations, members of the respective committees to host the meeting, heads of department, Chairperson of Myanmar Maternal and Child Welfare Association Prof Daw Kyu Kyu Swe, Vice-Chairperson of Myanmar National Working Committee for Women's Affairs Dr Daw May May Yi and member Dr Daw Khin win Shwe and member, local and foreign Journalist and guest. Mr Yong Chanthalangsy of the ASEAN Secretariat gave a speech.

He said: I should like to express my warm wishes and congratulations to the Government and the people of the Union of Myanmar for their commendable effort in organising the ASEAN Youth Day IX, in the traditional ASEAN spirit of friendship, understanding and regional solidarity. May I also express sincere appreciation to the Japanese Government for supporting the organisation and convening of the ASEAN Youth Day Meetings annually in ASEAN Member Countries.

The annual ASEAN Youth Day Meetings have consistently provided an opportunity for the youth of ASEAN to meet, share and exchange views and experiences, at the same time contributing towards raising an awareness of ASEAN and deepening the sense of identity among the young people of ASEAN as the region's future. The spirit of friendship and understanding developed during the annual programmes has been reinforced time and again at both the national and regional levels with a link being forged between each batch of young people joining the events. With the expansion of ASEAN's membership, the Youth Day Meeting has retained its relevance with a renewed focus on further strengthening the ties of friendship forged among the young people of ASEAN participating in the programmes of the meeting, as well as to deepen the sense of regional awareness and identity among these young people. The ASEAN Youth Award, with its yearly themes focusing on the relevant areas of interest for developing the skills of ASEAN youth, also contributes significantly to this process.

Minister Maj-Gen Sein Htwa presented ASEAN Youth Awards on Community Service to the winning associations of Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Myanmar, the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand and Vietnam. Mr Comlat Cedric of the Philippines, on behalf of the ASEAN Youth Awardees, spoke words of thanks.

He said: Our national hero Mr Jose Rizal once said 'The youth is the hope of the fatherland. Nothing perhaps can be more true whether we like it or not, whether I believe it or not the time will come when the youth of today shall be tomorrow's leaders responsible for our respective countries' future and eventually responsible to the next generation's young people.

On behalf of the ASEAN Youth Awardees, I would like to express our sincere gratitude and appreciation for this significant recognition you gave us. I am sure my fellow comrades will agree with me that thus was a very pleasant surprise in a sense. Receiving an award always boosts the morale of the recipient but it is not an end itself, it is not a motive behind our action; it is not the objective of what we do. As a young person and for the youths serving organizations as well our satisfaction and sense of fulfillment lies in being of service to our fellowmen, to our community, to humanity. And with this award, please be rest assured that we will be inspired toward better and harder-for the youth, our hope and our future Maraming Salamat Po At Po Mabuhay!
