- (1) Senior General Than Shwe delivered an address at the conclusion of Management Course No 11 for USDA Executives

YANGON, 26 Aug Patron of the Union Solidarity and Development Association Chairman of the State Law and Order Restoration Council Commander-in-Chief of Defence Services Senior General Than Shwe delivered an address at the conclusion of Management Course No 11 for USDA Executives in Pyidaungsu Hall of the Central Public Relations Unit in Hmawby at 9 am today.

In his address, Senior General Than Shwe said it could be noted that conclusion of the course has added new strength to the association.
Excerpts from Senior General's address

-Endeavours are being made in conducting these courses for the emergence of persons who will work for the State and the people with sincere cetena at various levels.

-We can learn from the history that weakness in studying international situation had led the nation fall under the colonialists' deception and wicked tricks and became their servitude.

-The Government with conviction has laid down objectives and is implementing them for the benefit of the nation's future.

-Endeavours should be made to win political, economic and defence power in developing the nation.

-The nation will be able to develop its economy if there is strength in political power which assures national solidarity. peace and tranquillity and maintenance of law and order.

-The nation will be able to build up its defence power if its economy is strong.

-The strength of political power is the basic factor and economic power which is the centre link among the three is the most important factor.
