Local and foreign medical teams stepping up health care in storm-hit areas

A cyclone hit Myanmar recently, claiming human lives and property in some areas in Ayeyawady and Yangon divisions. Rehabilitation works are now being carried out with added momentum under the leadership of the government and with the assistance of internal and international organizations in the storm-affected areas.

In addition, plans are under way to provide houses and food to the victims who have resettled, to enable them to resume their businesses and livelihoods, and to scale up health care in those areas.

At the invitation of the government, medical teams from India, China, Thailand, Laos, Bangladesh and Singapore have arrived in Myanmar to provide health care.

The teams from the six countries are taking disease control measures and giving treatment with heart and soul to the victims in Pyapon, Bogale, Kungyangon, Myaungmya, Labutta, Kyauktan and Maubin.

At the same time, medical staff from the Ministry of Health and the Ministry of Defence, medical experts from NGOs, medical teams from private enterprises, individual medical experts, and members of Red Cross, Fire Brigades, and other medical organizations totaling more than 30,000 have been engaged in the relief and rehabilitation works in the storm-affected areas.

Thanks to the continuous supply of medicines and relief aid donated by international community and the donors at home and abroad, and works being carried out in collaboration by the governments of the countries and the people, health care services will be able to be carried out on a wider scale.

Russia and China condemn US missile shield plan

BEIJING, 23 May — China and Russia on Friday condemned US plans to set up a missile defence system that would include bases in eastern Europe viewed by Moscow as a threat.

“Both sides believe that creating a global missile defence system, including deploying such systems in certain regions of the world, or plans for such cooperation, do not help support strategic balance and stability, and harm international efforts to control arms and the non-proliferation process,” Russia and China said in a joint statement.

“It harms the strengthening of trust between states and regional stability. In this respect (Russia and China) express their concern,” it said.

The statement was signed in Beijing by Chinese President Hu Jintao and Dmitry Medvedev, visiting China on his first foreign trip since becoming Russian president this month. —Internet

Russia launches defence satellite

Moscow, 23 May — Russia launched on Friday a carrier rocket with three defence satellites atop, Itar-Tass reported.

The rocket, also carrying the scientific Yubileyny micro-satellite took off from the Plesetsk spaceport at 7:20 p.m. (1520 GMT), Russian Space Forces spokesman Lt. Col. Alexei Zolotukhin was cited as saying. The launch was made successfully at the north Russia's launch pad, he said.—Internet

Canadians changing driving habits as oil prices soar: poll

OTTAWA, 23 May — More than half of Canadians are either changing their driving habits or thinking about it, as oil prices continue to soar, according to a new poll released Friday.

About a quarter of respondents said the soaring price of gasoline has led them to cut down on gasoline consumption and another 28 percent said they are starting to look for ways to do so, according to the survey done by the Harris Decima polling company.

About 15 percent said they will start to change their habits if pump prices push higher, while a quarter of respondents said they were unlikely to change the amount of gas they use no matter what the price.

“The recent run-up in price has motivated one in four people to change their behavior, but as people think more pain is yet to come, more behavior will likely change, too,” said Bruce Anderson, the president of Harris-Decima.

The poll also suggested that Canadians fear oil prices will soar even higher in the next five years and most of them blame gouging by oil companies.—Internet

US military deaths in Iraq war at 4,080

WASHINGTON, 23 May—As of Thursday, 22 May, 2008, at least 4,080 members of the US military have died in the Iraq war since it began in March 2003, according to an Associated Press count. The figure includes eight military civilians killed in action. At least 3,328 died as a result of hostile action, according to the military's numbers.

The AP count is two fewer than the Defence Department's tally, last updated Thursday at 10 am EDT.

The British military has reported 176 deaths; Italy, 33; Ukraine, 18; Poland, 21; Bulgaria, 13; Spain, 11; Denmark, seven; El Salvador, five; Slovakia, four; Latvia, three; Estonia, Georgia, Netherlands, Thailand, Romania, two each; and Australia, Hungary, Kazakhstan, South Korea, one death each.—Internet

Blair jet faced Israeli warplanes

LONDON, 23 May—Israeli fighter aircraft were scrambled to intercept a jet carrying former UK Prime Minister Tony Blair after its crew failed to identify themselves.

Aircrew used the radio to explain who they were after the two warplanes adopted an attack position, prompting them to peel off and return to base.

Mr Blair was en route to Israel from a World Economic Forum meeting at Sharm el Sheikh in Egypt on Wednesday.

He is the Middle East envoy for the Quartet of major powers.

Mr Blair has been in the role for the last 11 months.

A spokesman for the former prime minister said: “Mr Blair was one of a number of delegates on a flight back from the World Economic Forum in Sharm El Sheikh.

“We were not aware of any problem at the time, and have not been notified of any issue with the flight.”

Israel's air defence system is one of the strictest in the world and warplanes are often scrambled for false alarms.—Internet

Energy sectors hit by rising oil prices

NEW YORK, 23 May—Stocks on Wall St fell yesterday to round out the worst week in three months as worries about high oil prices hammered energy-sensitive sectors and left investors on edge about inflation.

Economic bellwethers United Technologies and Caterpillar were among the top drags on the Dow Jones industrials. General Motors' shares fell to a 26-year low after the company said strikes had reduced its earnings by $2.8 billion.

Worries about the impact of high oil prices, which topped $135 a barrel a day, pressured stocks last week, stoking fears about inflation and weaker consumer spending.—Internet

US airstrike kills eight Iraqis in north of Baghdad

TIKRIT (Iraq), 23 May — An overnight US airstrike hit a village in Iraq's Salahudin Province, killing eight people, a provincial police source said on Thursday.

The incident occurred when US troops conducted a search operation late on Wednesday in the Mazra'a Village near town Beiji, some 200 kilometres north of Baghdad, the source told Xinhua on condition of anonymity.

During the operation, a group of people observed trying to flee the village in a vehicle, prompting a US aircraft to fire a missile on their vehicle, destroying the vehicle and killing all the people aboard, the source said.

Earlier on Wednesday, US ground forces detained seven suspected insurgents and destroyed two of their cars in central Beiji Town, according to the source.

The US military did not confirm the two incidents which came as US-Iraqi forces are conducting a major offensive in the neighbouring province of Nineveh to uproot al-Qaeda militants from their latest strongholds in Iraq.—Xinhua

Two killed, eight wounded in six shootings in Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, 23 May — Six shootings took place one after another overnight in Los Angeles, leaving two people killed, eight wounded, police said on Wednesday.

The Tuesday night shootings showed an unusual spike in violence in parts of Los Angeles, police said. Police officials said they could not recall a crime spike over such a short period in recent memory.

The Los Angeles Police Department said they planned a swift response to the violence, including a marked increase in police presence. Although they could not give specific numbers, they said the deployment could include dozens of additional officers. Police suspected that some shootings were gang-related and some might be the result of road rage.

Boeing to lay off 750 workers in satellite sector

LOS ANGELES, 23 May — US defence contractor Boeing announced Wednesday that it will lay off 750 employees, mostly in the Los Angeles area, as the company's satellite manufacturing sector has seen a downturn in business.

The Chicago-based company said in a statement that about 100 employees will receive 60-day layoff notices this week with another 650 to be notified at the end of June. The job cuts will be "primarily in the area of engineering, but all skills will be affected", according to the statement.

The reshuffling will leave Boeing Space and Intelligence Systems, the company's satellite division, with about 6,450 employees by the end of the year. The division currently has 7,200 workers, most of them at its facility in El Segundo near Los Angeles.

Curfew in eastern Nepali city

KATHMANDU, 23 May — The local administration Wednesday clamped indefinite curfew following a violent demonstration against killing of a local youth in eastern Nepal, reported the local media house's website nepal-news.com. The curfew was clamped in Duhabi area of Sunsari District, some 220 kilometres southeast of Kathmandu as demonstrators came out in the streets and even attacked the area police office following the murder of a local youth Mohammad Faizu Mian.

Reports say Mian was killed by a local tea-shop owner Tikaram Pradhan, which triggered protest demonstrations that led to the curfew starting from 9:30 am local time (0345 GMT). —Xinhua

Opposition wins seat in blow to UK's Brown

CREWE, England, 23 May — Britain's opposition Conservative Party won a mid-term parliamentary seat from the ruling Labour Party on Friday in a new blow to Prime Minister Gordon Brown's bludgeoned political fortunes.

The Conservatives' win in the northern town of Crewe was the party's first gain from Labour in a mid-term election since 1978, the year before Margaret Thatcher seized victory and thrust the party into 18 years in the political wilderness.

The election, triggered by the death of the constituency's Labour member of Parliament, is being closely watched as an indicator of Brown's diminishing appeal 11 months after he took over as prime minister from Tony Blair.

The swing of 17.6 per cent from a Labour majority of 7,000 to a Conservative one of nearly 8,000 will be a bitter pill for Brown and his party to swallow. Turnout was 58 per cent — high for a mid-term election.

Analysts said that if the move was repeated nationally it would give the Conservatives a massive parliamentary majority.

Brown's popularity ratings have collapsed since October after he backed away from calling an early election which many pundits think he could have won but with a reduced majority.

WTO chief sees June turning point for trade deal

PARIS, 23 May — Negotiations for a global trade deal are likely to reach a breakthrough in June before being concluded before the end of the year, the head of the World Trade Organization said in an interview published on Friday.

"I would say June is more likely for an agreement over several essential points in order for the deal to conclude before the end of the year," the WTO's Pascal Lamy told newspaper Liberation. Political and technical conditions had been aligned on the three key subjects of agricultural subsidies and agricultural and industrial Custom tariffs, he said.

The WTO's Doha negotiations for a global trade deal were launched in 2001 to help poor countries export more and to boost the global economy. But a string of deadlines have been missed due to deep differences over how to lower barriers to exports.

ROK aims for world's 5th biggest shipping power by 2010

SEOUL, 23 May — South Korea aims to be the 5th biggest shipping power in the world by 2010 with specialized funds and tax benefits that will help local companies expand their fleets, South Korea's Ministry of Land, Transport and Maritime Affairs said on Thursday.

As of May, local shipping companies have ordered 22 million deadweight tons (DWTs) of ships that will be delivered in the coming years, which should be sufficient to push up South Korea's overall ranking by at least one notch, said a government official.

There has been a 20-per-cent annual gain in ships in recent years, the official said.

According to the ministry, as of 2007, South Korea ranked sixth among the biggest shipping powers in the world, with 36.80 million deadweight tons (DWT) of registered ships.

Indonesian Central Bank chief vows good governance

JAKARTA, 23 May — Outgoing Indonesian chief economic minister Boediono was sworn in as the new Central Bank governor Thursday and he said his priority was to promote good governance in the bank.

"We focus on good governance, because that's the very fundamental issue," said Boediono, whose predecessor Burhanuddin Abdullah is being detained by the anti-graft commission.

"We are going to make internal changes to prevent the recurrence of such (graft) cases," he told a Press conference after the swearing-in ceremony at the Supreme Court building here.

Boediono, 65, was a former Bank Indonesia director before his brief spell as the national development planning minister and then served as the finance minister under the Megawati Soekarnoputri administration (2001-2004).

In late 2005, he was called in by President Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono to become the coordinating minister for economic affairs.

Fukuda calls for Asia-Pacific network against disasters

TOKYO, 23 May — Japanese Prime Minister Yasuo Fukuda delivered a key foreign policy speech Thursday, calling on Asia-Pacific nations to jointly build a network to better prepare for disasters and pandemics such as earthquakes, tsunami and bird flu.

Fukuda said that Japan will take the initiatives to boost further development in the Asia-Pacific Region and pursue a foreign policy on disaster management cooperation in the wake of the devastating earthquake in China and the cyclone that hit Myanmar.

He said that a certain mechanism, along with the network, should be created to enable immediate and coordinated disaster relief operations in the event of a massive disaster.

The Japanese Prime Minister also made "five commitments" on Asia's development—to support ASEAN's effort to build a community by 2015, reinforce the Japan-US alliance to maintain the stability in Asia and the Pacific, make Japan a peace-making nation, promote human exchanges in the Asia-Pacific Region, and strive to tackle climate change.

Fidel Castro attacks McCain, Bush in column

HAVANA, 24 May — Cuban leader Fidel Castro blasted Republican presidential candidate John McCain on Friday for his criticism of the Cuban Government this week, saying McCain had shown why he finished near the bottom of his class at West Point.

In his latest newspaper column, Castro also attacked US President George W. Bush for his speech on Wednesday announcing that US citizens would be allowed to send cell phones to Cuba.

“A deluge of speeches and lies they directed at Cuba,” Castro said in a column published in Communist Party newspaper Granma. “How far they are from knowing Cuba and its people.”

McCain, speaking in Miami on Tuesday, vowed to maintain the United States’ 46-year-long trade embargo against the island until, among other things, the Cuban Government frees political prisoners and holds internationally monitored, multi-party elections.

“McCain, in his book ‘Faith of My Fathers,’ admitted that he was among the last five students in his course in West Point,” Castro wrote. “He’s showing it.”

Mexican army uncovers marijuana haul in Sharp unit

TIJUANA (Mexico), 23 May — Mexican troops on Thursday uncovered more than 1.5 metric tons of marijuana hidden in a truck inside an installation of a unit of Japanese electronics firm Sharp Corp. General Sergio Aponte, in charge of a crackdown on drug trafficking in the northern state of Baja California, told a news conference the marijuana was in 336 packets behind boxes carrying TV screens bound for Canada.

Sharp’s local lawyer, Marco Antonio Esconda, said the company had no knowledge the drugs and Sharp was not the owner of the truck. He declined to

Township attacks chill S African tourism industry

CAPE TOWN, May 23 — A whiff of panic surrounds South Africa’s tourism industry after deadly xenophobic attacks that have prompted travel warnings from Western nations and led some Africans to cancel visits.

Tourism is a cornerstone of the economy, contributing 8 per cent of annual GDP and employing about one million people.

Some 8.4 million people visited last year, with the number expected to rise to 10 million by 2010, when South Africa hosts the soccer World Cup. “It looks like there is panic among tourists across the globe but mainly from Africa,” said Reynold Thakhuli, spokesman for the Tourism Business Council of South Africa, which is fielding worried calls from major tourist partners overseas.

Germany was among the first countries to issue a travel advisory after mob rampages that have killed at least 42 African immigrants and prompted more than 15,000 others to flee Johannesburg area shantytowns since 11 May.

The German Foreign Ministry advised visitors to avoid central Johannesburg and outlying townships.

Iraqi TV station says US troops killed cameraman

BAGHDAD, 23 May — An Iraqi television station accused US troops on Thursday of shooting dead one of its cameramen as he walked to his Baghdad home.

and colleagues said.

Colleagues of Wisam Ali Ouda, of the Afaq television channel, said he was shot dead by US soldiers in eastern Baghdad’s Obaidi District on Wednesday morning.

“We confirm one of our employees was killed by an American sniper,” said Bushra Abdul-Amir, head of public relations at the station. She added that witnesses had given testimony to the station’s managers.

Hadi Jalu, deputy director of Iraq’s Journalistic Freedoms Observatory, said he had also interviewed witnesses on the scene who had corroborated this, without saying how many. “They all said an American soldier killed him,” he said.

Rights group attacks US over Iraq child detentions

BAGHDAD, 23 May — Hundreds of children held by US forces in Iraq should be given immediate access to lawyers and have their cases reviewed promptly by an independent judicial body, a rights group said on Wednesday.

Human Rights Watch said US military authorities were holding 513 Iraqi children as of May 12 as “imperative threats to security”.

Since the March 2003 US-led invasion, the United States has detained 2,400 children under the age of 18 in Iraq, including some as young as 10, it said. Child detainees were sometimes interrogated over days or weeks by military units in the field before being sent to main detention centres and had no real opportunity to challenge their detention, the human rights group said. “The vast majority of children detained in Iraq languish for months in US military custody,” said Clarisa Bencomo, a researcher for Human Rights Watch.

Under the patronage of the National Disaster Preparedness Central Committee and under the arrangements of the Ministry of Transport and the Ministry of Health, three ships of the Inland Water Transport under the Ministry of Transport left Wah Dan Jetty in Yangon for Ayeyawady Division at 8.40 am on 19 May to give medical treatment to the programme for providing free medical treatment, Deputy Director-General of the Department of Health under the Ministry of Health Dr Win Myint said, “We will go to all places that are navigable by boat in the designated townships to give medical treatment. We will also go in the boats arranged by local authorities to the villages along the banks of the rivers and creeks where large ships cannot be moored. We will also give treatment to the sick people who visit our ships. That is to say, we will not only go to sick people but also give treatment to sick people who visit us. Under the geographical features, Ayeyawady Division is teeming with rivers and creeks. So, we considered that it is very difficult for the people in some villages along the banks of the rivers and creeks to get to township people’s hospitals, health centres and dispensaries. So, we have chosen the mobile clinic pattern and we will go to all places that are accessible for them”.

Each ship carries a team comprising about 12 members—specialists, paediatricians, psychiatrists, dental surgeons, general practitioners and male nurses.

“The majority of the members are from the Ministry of Health, and some are from the Myanmar Medical Association. We will provide treatment in those regions as long as they are in need of health care. Under the programme, team members have to stay there for a week in rotation”, said Dr Win Myint.

Deputy Director Dr Myo Win of the Central Medical Depot of the Ministry of Health said that the depot issued each ship over one ton of assorted medicines including medicines for treating illness, antibiotics, painkillers, medicines for treating diarrhoea, psychiatric medicines, vitamin tablets, and

National referendum held in 40 townships in Yangon Division, seven townships in Ayeyawady Division

YANGON, 24 May— The State Peace and Development Council is striving together with the people for the emergence of a peaceful, modern, developed and discipline-flourishing democratic nation.

In the process, the seven-step Road Map has been laid down and is being implemented. At present, the approval of the constitution of the Republic of the Union of Myanmar by holding national referendum in line with the fundamental principles and detailed basic principles laid down by the National Convention, the fourth step of Road Map, has taken shape. The National Referendum was held on 10 May for approval of the constitution of the Republic of the Union of Myanmar at the respective polling stations across the nation at the same time. The national referendum took place at the same time today in 40 townships in Yangon Division and seven townships in Ayeyawady Division where it was postponed due to natural disaster.

At 6 am, the people in queue drew ballot papers and put them into the ballot boxes. Members of Red Cross and officials aided the sick, the disabled and the old so that they can cast votes in comfort.

Polling station officers and members made arrangements for voters of some polling stations to cast vote although the time of voting was up.

At 4 pm, polling stations were closed, and polling station officers and members counted votes in the presence of officials.

There were 3,147 polling stations—2,437 in Yangon Division and 710 in Ayeyawady Division.

Sudan security says senior Darfur rebel arrested

KHARTOUM, 23 May — Sudan said on Thursday a senior member of the Darfur rebel forces that launched an attack on Khartoum killing more than 200 people had been arrested.

State media reported the detention of Abdel Aziz Ashr, describing him as the half brother of Khalil Ibrahim, the leader of the insurgent Justice and Equality Movement (JEM).

The report was confirmed by a security source who said Ashr had been acting as the "field commander" of JEM's forces.

There were no details of where or when the arrest took place.

No one was immediately available for comment from JEM, which analysts say controls the most powerful military force out of Darfur's rebel factions.

JEM launched an assault on Khartoum on May 10, travelling across hundreds of miles of desert and scrubland in more than 300 heavily armed vehicles to strike the suburb of Omdurman.

Government forces stopped the rebels at a bridge into central Khartoum, a few kilometres from the Army headquarters and the presidential palace.

It was the first time that rebels from Sudan's far flung districts had managed to reach the capital in decades.

Swedish police release two men after nuclear scare

STOCKHOLM, 23 May — Swedish police said on Thursday they had released two men who had been held on suspicion of planning to sabotage a nuclear power station.

Police detained two contract workers on Wednesday after one of them was stopped in a security check at the Oskarshamn nuclear plant, on the southeast coast of Sweden, with traces of a highly explosive material thought to be TATP.

TATP, or triacetone triperoxide, is extremely unstable, especially when subjected to heat, friction and shock.

Police issued a brief statement saying the two would remain under suspicion until after technical experts had concluded an investigation. "Both men have been cooperative but they deny any wrongdoing and waived the right to legal counsel," the statement said. "There was no legal ground to hold them any longer."

Chile flooding kills five, forces 13,000 from homes

SANTIAGO, 23 May — Heavy rains and flooding have killed five people and forced about 13,000 from their homes in south-central Chile, some evacuated after rivers swelled and burst their banks, the government said on Thursday.

Two died in landslides, one was struck by a boulder and another was hit by a falling tree. One man died of hypothermia. Television images showed streets turned into rivers in the port town of Valparaiso, where 3.7 inches (93 mm) of rain fell in 24 hours during two storm fronts that began on the weekend.

Nearly 350 people were in shelters, while most of the displaced were staying with friends and relatives, the government said. Parts of Chile experience downpours and flooding every year in the run-up to the Southern Hemisphere winter.

The government's National Emergency

Office said 7,886 people were displaced in the southern region of Bio Bio and 4,997 in the agricultural region of Maule, about 125 miles (200 kilometres) south of the capital, Santiago.

Sri Lankan tourist arrivals drop in April

COLOMBO, 24 May — Sri Lanka's tourist arrivals decreased by about 12 per cent to 29,047 in April from 33,039 in the same month of 2007, the Sri Lanka Tourism Board said on Thursday in a statement.

The arrivals suffered a decline of over 20 per cent compared with the March arrival figure of 38,049, statistics of the government agency showed.

Tourism, a major revenue earner of Sri Lanka, has suffered in the face of the escalation of violence in the island's separatist armed conflict in the north and east.

Scientists discover “frogamander” fossil

CHICAGO, 23 May — The discovery of a “frogamander”, a 290 million-year-old fossil that links modern frogs and salamanders, may resolve a longstanding debate about amphibian ancestry, Canadian scientists said on Wednesday.

Modern amphibians — frogs, salamanders and earthworm-like caecilians — have been a bit slippery about divulging their evolutionary ancestry. Gaps in the fossil record showing the transformation of one form into another have led to a lot of scientific debate.

The fossil Gerobatrachus hottoni or elderly frog, described in the journal Nature, may help set the record straight.

“It’s a missing link that falls right between where the fossil record of the extinct form and the fossil record for the modern form begins,” said Jason Anderson of the University of Calgary, who led the study. —MNA/Reuters

FAO says bumper harvests coming but food to stay costly

ROME, 23 May — The world will see bumper harvests this year, but that might not be enough to protect the world’s poorest countries from food bills four times higher than at the start of the decade, the United Nations forecast on Thursday.

Increased plantings and good weather will provide a global wheat crop 8.7 per cent greater than last year, one of the reasons wheat prices have slid some 50 per cent since February, the Food and Agriculture Organization said.

But rice — a staple for more than half the earth’s population — will remain in short supply on global markets, and poor countries that rely on food imports could see food bills up 40 per cent this year after a similar price hike in 2007.

“The sustained rise in imported food expenditures (for poor countries) ... constitutes a very worrying development,” FAO said in its Food Outlook report. “Their annual food import basket could cost four times as much as it did in 2000.”

Two old villagers rescued from isolated quake-hit mountain

BEIJING, 23 May — Chinese armed police on Thursday rescued an elderly couple, aged 92 and 84, after they had been stranded in an isolated mountain in southwestern Sichuan Province for 11 days because of the devastating earthquake.

The childless couple, Tian Yueqing and Cao Shuyun, lost contact with their villagers and were trapped in their cottage in Tai’an Village on top of Qingcheng mountain, which is close to Dujiangyan City.

The Chinese Armed Police rescue team found the couple during a large-scale search and carried them with stretchers to another village at the foot of the mountain. They made the couple a tent and brought them beds, food, water and other daily necessities.

UN says donors should back Afghan $50b aid plan

KABUL, 23 May — The international community should back a 50-billion-US-dollar Afghan development strategy at a donors’ conference in Paris next month, but Kabul must also fight rampant corruption, the UN’s special envoy said on Thursday.

Afghanistan depends on aid for 90 per cent of its spending. But international donors have fallen behind in paying what they have already pledged and much of the money goes straight back to donor countries in salaries and profits. Official corruption eats into the remainder.

More than six years after US-led and Afghan forces toppled the Taliban, Kabul and its Western backers are faced with a revived insurgency and a public frustrated by the lack of security and disappointed with the slow pace of development.

Paraguay hold Ivory Coast 1-1 in Japan friendly

YOKOHAMA (Japan), 23 May — Paraguay salvaged a 1-1 draw with Ivory Coast in a friendly on Thursday after a wonder strike from forward Cristian Bogado.

Ivory Coast had gone ahead in the 73rd minute lead of their Kirin Cup opener in Yokohama, striker Kandia Traore tucking home a low right-wing cross from Emmanuel Eboue.

The west Africans were playing their first game under new Bosnian coach Vahid Halihodzic but they were caught napping just three minutes after Traore's goal. Reacting quickly to a knock-down, Bogado smashed a left-foot shot just inside the post from 20 metres to give Paraguay a share of the spoils.

Hosts Japan take on Ivory Coast in the second game of the three-nation tournament in Toyota on Saturday. Japan and Paraguay meet in Saitama two days later.

WADA appeals Italians' bans for skipping drug tests

ROME, 23 May — Three Italian players could face stiffer punishments for missing drugs tests after the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) decided to take their cases to Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS).

Napoli midfielder Daniele Mannini and Davide Possanzini of Serie B side Brescia were banned for 15 days in March by an Italian Olympic Committee judge, while Reggina's Nicolo Cherubin, who is on loan at Second Division Avellino, was suspended for a month.

Davydenko, Monaco win twice to reach Poertschach semis

POERTSCHACH (Austria), 23 May — Top seeds Nikolay Davydenko and Juan Monaco battled through two matches each on Thursday to reach the semi-finals of the Poertschach claycourt tournament.

World number four Davydenko and second seeded defending champion Monaco were forced to play second round matches in the morning and quarterfinals in the afternoon after heavy rain disrupted the start of the week at the Austrian event.

"I'm very happy but I'm also very tired," Monaco told reporters after following up a 6-2, 6-2 win over Czech Jiri Vanek with a 7-5, 7-6 victory over American Robby Ginepri.—MNA/Reuters

Strachan calls Celtic title win highlight of his life

GLASGOW, 23 May — Celtic manager Gordon Strachan savoured his third Scottish Premier League title in a row on Thursday, describing it as one of the highlights of his life.

"This has been one of the most fantastic occasions of my life with a bunch of guys that believed in me and I believed in them," Strachan said after Celtic clinched the title with a 1-0 win away to Dundee United.

The victory left Celtic three points clear of arch-rivals Rangers, who lost 2-0 at Aberdeen on the closing night of the Scottish championship.

Striker Scott McDonald dedicated the title triumph to the team's late first team coach and former manager Tommy Burns, who died last week of cancer at the age of 51.—MNA/Reuters

Messi puts Olympics ahead of Barca's European opener

MADRID, 23 May — Lionel Messi on Thursday put playing for Argentina at the Olympic Games in August ahead of Barcelona's Champions League third qualifying round tie.

"It is up to me to decide and the Olympic Games are something I will never be able to play in again. I am very excited at the prospect," Messi told a news conference on Thursday.

The 20-year-old forward said he had not officially told the club, but did not expect there to be any problems with his decision.

"We don't know who we are going to be playing yet (in the qualifier) but Barcelona don't depend only on me to win games. I think the club and the fans will understand," he said.—MNA/Reuters
