Strive to set new SEA Games records

The 26th SEA Games started on 11 November at Jakarta and Palembang of Indonesia concluded on 22 November.

Myanmar bagged 16 gold, 27 silver and 35 bronze totaling 78 in this games. The most of gold medals Myanmar got in this SEA Games were from rowing and archery events. Silver and bronze medalists were Judo and Wushu athletes. It is found that Myanmar athletes were weak in other sports events.

Compared with other countries in medal standings, Indonesia, the host country, collected most of gold medals, followed by Thailand in the second place and Vietnam in the third place. It was the fourth time for Indonesia as a host country after the Peninsula Games was renamed as SEA Games. This experience offered Indonesia to enjoy an advantage.

Likewise, Thailand, Vietnam, Malaysia, Singapore and Philippines hosted the games at least two times each. Thanks to such kind of experience, these countries were able to stand above the middle line of the medal tally. It can be said that their success in sports has been brought about by their wealth.

The first SEA Games was held in Bangkok of Thailand in 1959. It was called SEA Peninsula Games at that time. In 1977, the Peninsula Games was renamed as SEA Games. Myanmar hosted Peninsula Games in 1961 and 1969. Myanmar sports peaked at that time.

Now, Myanmar has planned to host the SEA Games after renaming in 1977 for the first time in 2013. This 26th SEA Games was the first step to success for Myanmar. So I would like to urge Myanmar athletes to undergo rigorous trainings so as to be able to set new SEA Games records after making thorough reviews on strength and weakness in respective sports events.

MNA

NAY PYI TAW, 22 Nov—Member of the Myanmar delegation Union Minister for Information and for Culture U Kyaw Hsan who accompanied President U Thein Sein to attend the 19th ASEAN Summit and related summits in Bali of Indonesia attended the Retreat Session of the ASEAN Ministers Responsible for Culture and Arts (AMCA) at Palma Hall of Courtyard Marriot Hotel in Bali from 10 am to 12 noon on 17 November.

Indonesian Minister of Education and Culture Mr Muhammad Nuh presided over the retreat session and it was also attended by Ministers Responsible for Culture and Arts of ASEAN countries.

Ministers Responsible for Culture and Arts of ASEAN countries exchanged views on Declaration on ASEAN Unity in Cultural Diversity: Towards Strengthen ASEAN Community.

In his address, Union Minister U Kyaw Hsan said that the 4th ASEAN Ministers Responsible for Culture and Arts held in the Philippines in 2010 adopted future tasks for three work groups on culture and arts. Moreover, he said that priority was given to implementation of some projects of three work groups with the contribution of the Roadmap for ASEAN Social and Culture Community. Likewise, he added that the summit signed the agreement on cooperation in culture between ASEAN and Russia. He recounted that Indonesia had improved the proposal of the Philippines on ASEAN cultural characters as the Declaration on ASEAN Unity in Cultural Diversity, and it was signed at the 19th ASEAN Summit. He pointed out that it is necessary to effectively utilize the diversity of culture and arts of ASEAN countries so as to establish the further strengthening ASEAN Community. Moreover, he said that the plans to realize in-depth knowledge about ASEAN are to be adopted with implementation of the ASEAN+3 plans on a wider scale. As the ASEAN Community will be established in 2015, it is necessary to raise the awareness on ASEAN and Community and to seek the better solutions to tasks to be carried out and submitted at the 5th ASEAN Culture and Arts Ministers' Meeting to be held in Singapore in 2012, he said.

The session decided to coordinate the availability of budget for future tasks and Action Plan tasks at the ASEAN COCI Meeting and Senior Officers for the ASEAN Socio-Cultural Council-SOCA Meeting 2012 to be held in Thailand in December 2011.

After the session, the ASEAN Ministers of Culture and Arts posed for documentary photo and attended the luncheon hosted by the Indonesian Culture Minister.—MNA

Russian Navy to receive 10 diesel submarines by 2020

Moscow, 22 Nov— The Russian Navy is planning to receive up to 10 diesel-electric submarines by 2020, a navy spokesperson said. "The Russian Navy expects to receive 8-10 diesel submarines by 2020," the official said Monday.

The new subma-nes will strengthen primarily Russia's Baltic and Black Sea fleets, he added.

Russia's Admiralteiskie Verfi shipyard Monday launched the construction of a Project 636.3 modernized Kilo-class submarine. The Project 636 vessels, crewed by 52 submariners, have an underwater speed of 20 knots, a cruising range of 400 miles with the ability to patrol for 45 days. They are armed with 18 torpedoes and eight surface-to-air missiles.

The spokesperson said the improved Kilo class submarines will feature advanced "stealth" technology, extended combat range and ability to strike land, surface and underwater targets.

The Russian Navy currently has about 20 diesel-electric submarines deployed to protect Russia's territorial waters.—Internet

Two separatist rebels killed in S Philippine clash

MANILA, 22 Nov— Two members of the separatist Moro Islamic Liberation Front (MILF) were killed on Monday in a clash between two groups of MILF rebels in Lambayong Town, Sultan Kudarat Province. Col Leo Ferrer, commander of the Army's 601st Brigade, said Tuesday that a long-standing land dispute triggered the fighting between members of the MILF's 106th and 108th Base Command.

The gunfight lasted for four hours. Sampulna Baumol, commander of the 108th Base Command and one of his men were killed during the clash.

"Sampulna and one of his men were reportedly killed and were immediately buried," Ferrer said.

Ferrer said the military did not intervene in the fighting between the two feuding MILF groups because the problem was internal to the MILF, which is negotiating with the government for a peace accord for the past 14 years.

He said the military asked the government's Coordinating Committee on the Cessation of Hostilities to inform their MILF counterpart "to pacify the warring parties."—Xinhua

China calls for permanent peace in Asia-Pacific region

BEIJING, 22 Nov — Chinese State Councillor Dai Bingguo on Monday called for joint efforts to maintain permanent peace in the Asia-Pacific Region.

The 21st century is one featuring peace, development and cooperation for the Asia-Pacific Region as well as for the whole world, Dai said as he met with a group of participants of the third Core Group Meeting of the Munich Security Conference (MSC) held in Beijing.

The MSC, formerly known as the Munich Conference on Security Policy, was founded in 1962 by German publisher Ewald-Heinrich von Kleist-Schmenzin. The meeting, as an offshoot of the MSC, is intended to place the conference's work on a permanent footing and give a small, exclusive group of participants an opportunity to discuss key issues of international security policy.

The first MSC Core Group Meeting took place in Washington DC in the autumn of 2009, and the second was held in Moscow in the autumn of 2010. To maintain enduring peace in the Asia-Pacific Region, all parties involved should respect each other, treat each other equally, co-exist in a harmonious way and seek common prosperity, said the state councillor.

The Asia-Pacific Region is different from other regions, Dai said, adding that the realities in the region should be fully considered before actions are taken. He urged parties involved to listen to the opinions of the Asia-Pacific nations and pay attention to the nations' "comfort level." As an Asian country, China cherishes the hard-won situation in Asia and will make joint efforts with other Asian nations to unremittingly safeguard and promote peace, stability and prosperity in Asia, he added.—MNA/Xinhua

The squad succeeded in disposing one bomb, but when they came to the second one, it went off, said the report, adding that one policeman was killed right on the spot while nine others including three policemen were injured in the explosion.

All the injured have been rushed to the District Headquarter Hospital in the city. Conditions about the injured people are not known at this moment.

Mardan is a city located some 110 kilometres northwest of the country's capital Islamabad. Last year a terrorist attack on an army camp in the city was reported, in which many were killed or injured.—Xinhua

One killed, one injured in suspected PKK attack in southeast Turkey

ANKARA, 22 Nov— One person was killed and another injured in an attack against a civilian car staged by suspected members of the outlawed Kurdish Workers' Party (PKK) in southeastern Turkey, local newspaper Today's Zaman reported on Tuesday. The attack took place late Monday in the Nusaybin District of Mardin Province, and a sergeant major was killed while a civilian public personnel was injured, Mardin Governor Turhan Ayvaz was quoted as saying.

Ayvaz said the injured was taken to Nusaybin State Hospital for medical treatment, adding that the Turkish security forces had launched a military operation to capture the assailants. The PKK has recently intensified its attacks on Turkish troops, police and civilians.—Xinhua

sleep at night

For exhausted parents who are desperate to get at least a few consecutive hours of sleep, there are things you can do to coax your newborn to sleep at night. The Nemours Foundation offers these suggestions:

- * When baby wakes at night, avoid sources of stimulation, such as noise or bright lights.
- * Make sure baby gets plenty of sleep during the day, as overtired babies may have more trouble sleeping.
- * Impose a consistent and relaxing bedtime routine.
- * Don't be afraid to cuddle and comfort your baby when necessary.

HP quarterly profit plunges 90 percent

SAN FRANCISCO, 22 Nov—Hewlett-Packard Co (HP) on Monday reported that its profit in the most recent quarter fell more than 90 percent with sales also declining.

In the company's fourth quarter of fiscal 2011 ended 31 Oct, the company posted net earnings of 239 million US dollars, compared with 2.54 billion dollars in the same period a year earlier. HP's net revenue for the quarter reached 32.1 billion dollars, down 3 percent year-on-year.

Excluding one-time items, HP earned 1.17 dollars per share, which topped estimates of analysts. According to Thomson Reuters, analysts had expected earnings of 1.13 dollars per share on revenue of 32.05 billion dollars.

It was the first earnings report since Meg Whitman took over as chief executive officer (CEO) of the information technology giant on 22 Sept, replacing Leo Apotheker.

"HP has a great opportunity to build on our strong hardware, software, and services franchises with leading market positions, customer relationships, and intellectual property," Whitman said in a statement after the earnings announcement.

"We need to get back to the business fundamentals in fiscal 2012, including making prudent investments in the business and driving more consistent execution," she added.

Samsung says in last-stage talks to launch Google TV Business

SEOUL, 22 Nov—Samsung Electronics, the world's top TV maker, is in last-stage talks with Google to roll out its Google TVs, the head of Samsung's TV division told reporters on Tuesday.

Google TV — which currently comes built-in on certain Sony Corp television models and on Logitech International set-top boxes — allows Samsung's TV division, said the company planned to unveil its Google TV at an event next year without elaborating on the schedule, saying only the firm was working with Google on the rollout.

Mitsubishi, Suzuki in talks on Business electric-car pact

TOKYO, 22 Nov—Japan's Mitsubishi Motors (MMC) said Tuesday it is in talks to supply rival Suzuki Motor with electric vehicles.

"MMC and Suzuki are currently working on details. However, plans are for initial supply to Suzuki to begin in February 2012," the company said in a statement. The two companies intend to build their cooperation to full-scale supply by March 2013, it said. If the companies reach an agreement, Mitsubishi, the maker of the world's first commercially produced electric car, the i-MiEV, would provide Suzuki with minicar-class light commercial electric vehicles, it said.

"The talks towards an agreement are intended to increase economies of scale for MMC which will in turn contribute to lower production costs and increased productivity," it said. Suzuki had planned to seek support from Volkswagen in hybrid technologies and other eco-friendly areas, while the German firm hoped to jointly develop small cars for emerging markets by taking advantage of Suzuki's know-how. But they made little progress and halted their joint projects, with Suzuki ending the alliance and demanding the German auto giant sell back its stake in the Japanese carmaker by November 2012.

Pyidaungsu Hluttaw continues for fifth day

One bill approved, report of Joint Bill Committee sought for resolution, names enlisted for discussion

NAY PYI TAW, 22 Nov— The Pyidaungsu Hluttaw session continued for the fifth day at Pyidaungsu Hluttaw Hall of Hluttaw Building here at 10 am today, attended by Speaker of Pyidaungsu Hluttaw U Khin Aung Myint, Speaker of Pyithu Hluttaw Thura U Shwe Mann and 586 representatives of Pyidaungsu Hluttaw.

During the meeting, one bill was approved and report of the joint bill committee was sought for resolution and names were enlisted for discussion.

Five representatives discussed the different views of Pyithu Hluttaw and Amyotha Hluttaw on the facts of the peaceful gathering and procession bill paragraph by paragraph.

Regarding the paragraph 2 (h) of the original bill, U Thein Nyunt of Thingangyun Constituency said that the Section 354 (b) of the constitution states that “Every citizen shall be at liberty in the exercise of the following rights, if not contrary to the laws, enacted for Union security, prevalence of law and order, community peace and tranquility or public order and morality (b) to assemble peacefully without arms and holding procession.” The provision expresses “without arms”. The State Flag Rules 3 (j) stated that if a group of the State Flag barriers participates in the State ceremony procession, the group shall stay in the front of the procession; if there is no group of flag barriers, but if there are State flags, the State Flags shall be flew in the front of the procession; if there is no group of flag barriers, but if there is a State Flag, the flag shall be flew at the centre of the front of the procession and if there are other flags besides the State Flags, the number of flags shall be odd and shall be flew at the centre of the procession.

International countries take an interest in the bill. Leaving the State Flag in the paragraph of the bill approved by Amyotha Hluttaw do not comply with the above mentioned rules and it is also not appropriate to leave the State Flag though flags or legal organizations are allowed to fly in procession, leading to the lack of sense of politic and unnecessary consequences. In the State Flag Section 17, said this law can be amended, added or revoked by the Union Hluttaw which is organized in accordance with the constitution of the Republic of the Union of Myanmar. This law is effective until the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw revokes it.

Hluttaw representatives should have an outlook not only on legislation but also on politic. Considering the State Flag in the paragraph would promote the integrity of the State and works for human rights as well. Therefore, the lack of the State Flag in the rules shows lack of political farsightedness and it is obligatory to include the State Flag in the rules.

Afterwards, Dr Aye Maung of Rakhine State constituency No.1 said fundamental rights and duties of the citizens are expressed in the Chapter 8 of the State Constitution. This original bill would be enacted to provide protection for a peaceful procession and for those who don't want to participate in a procession in accordance with law. Besides, the bill is being expected too much by the people. As the State Flag represents the people, every citizen has a right to hold the State Flag in accordance with the rules and regulations and that right is also included in the original provisions of ministries. Section 13 (b) (2) of the State Flag stated that using the State Flag at the not permitted place, area and issues. Therefore, not to break the Section 13 (b) (2), the State Flag should be included in the paragraph 2 (h) of the bill. The objective of promulgation of the State Flag Law is to use and safeguard the State Flag in compliance with law in accordance with the integrity of the State Flag. In the Section 4 of the law stated that the State Flag is marked with yellow, green and red stripes to show respect to the three-colour flag which was used during the struggle for the independence. Therefore, “the State Flag” should be included in this bill.

Afterwards, U Mya Thein of Bogale Constituency said that the State Flag Law and Regulations were promulgated on 21, October, 2010. He believed that those organizations who would make processions in accordance with the bill will represent the people. Apart from the flags of organizations concerned, flying the State Flag in front of the procession by the citizens in accordance with democratic practices is meant that they keep the State Flag on the fore, making more meaningful to the objective of the law. The State Flag should be used in accordance with rules and regulations and the approval of Pyithu Hluttaw is appropriate.

U Stephen of Kengtung Constituency said that peaceful procession cannot be assumed as a gesture of opposition but can be also used for welcoming and supporting. For such cases, can the procession have profound meaning only State flag is allowed to use in the procession. In the preface of the bill, it is stated that Pyidaungsu Hluttaw enacted this law to enable citizens enjoy rights prescribed in Article 354 of the Constitution of the Republic of the Union of Myanmar in line with the laws” Rules to be followed are comprehensively described in State Flag Law. Not allowing to use the State Flag may mean prohibiting the fundamental rights and thus only the phrase “State Flag” passed by the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw is inserted, can it be in conformity with the constitution.

With regard to the paragraph 2 (h), what Pyithu Hluttaw approved is “Flag includes State Flag, and flags of officially-registered parties and organizations” whereas Amyotha Hluttaw passed that “Flag includes flags of officially-registered parties and organizations.”

As the Pyithu Hluttaw had approved the original provision in the constitution, approval was sought from the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw concerning the amendment of Amyotha Hluttaw.

The proposal that the amendment of the Amyotha Hluttaw should be the part of the constitution was decided through voting, in which 139 representatives voted in favour of, 416 against and 22 neutral. As “No” votes outnumbered than “Yes” it was decided that the original paragraph 2 (h) of the constitution is the part of the constitution.

With regard to the Paragraph-20, U Aung Mya Than of Nyaungdon Constituency said that the amendment seemed to be no difference in meaning in general but is different legally. Inserting the phrase “as prescribed in Chapter VII” by Amyotha Hluttaw is legally inappropriate. The phrase “actions taken according to this law” approved by the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw is more comprehensive than the phrase “as prescribed in Chapter VII” as it is a pithy and precise phrase being legally preferable and simple and easy to understand. Thus, the approval of the Pyithu Hluttaw is more appropriate.

With regard to the paragraph-20, the Pyithu Hluttaw approved that “Offence sued against this law is designated as cognizable offence” whereas Amyotha Hluttaw approved that “Offences prescribed in Chapter VII are designated as cognizable offences.”

As the Pyithu Hluttaw had approved the original provision in the constitution, approval was sought from the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw concerning the amendment of Amyotha Hluttaw.

The proposal that the amendment of the Amyotha Hluttaw should be the part of the constitution was decided through voting and the result is 135 “Yes” votes, 418 “No” votes and 20 neutral votes. As “No” votes outnumbered than “Yes” it was decided that the original paragraph 2 (h) of the constitution is the part of the constitution.

Chairperson U Mya Nyein of Joint Bill Committee explained findings and resolution of the Joint Bill Committee with respect to Peaceful Assembly and Procession Bill.

Secretary of the Joint Bill Committee U T Kun Myat and Member of the Joint Bill Committee Daw Nan Wa Nu also made explanation. The Hluttaw decided to put clarifications of U Mya Nyein and U T Kun Myat on record.

In the session for seeking approval of the Hluttaw on survey report of the Joint Committee, three Hluttaw representatives discussed survey report of Joint Public Accounts Committee on 2011-2012 fiscal year budgets.

Dr Banya Aung Moe of Mon Sstae Constituency No (7) said that being able to submit financial report is a good sign and there would have been much difficulties if the previous government had not drawn the budget. It is the responsibility of the Hluttaw to pass the budgets for 2012-2013 fiscal year. He concluded that he would like to urge the Hluttaw to draw the budget in time in order that experts can give advices and Hluttaw representatives can consider.

Dr Aye Maung of Rakhine State Constituency No (1) discussed that according to Article 221, 103 (b) and 103 (c) of the constitution, Pyidaungsu Hluttaw shall enact the budgets for operation of Union government and Region/State governments in a particular fiscal year as a law in advance and it needs to stick to that enacted budget, he assumed. He continued that he did not wish to argue the provision to be submitted to Pyidaungsu Hluttaw according to Article 103 (a) of the constitution as 2011-2012 fiscal year budget was enacted by the State Peace and Development Council with Law No (9/2011 on 27 January, 2011.

It is necessary to submit the already prepared budget bill for 2011-2012 fiscal year to the holding second regular session of the first Pyidaungsu Hluttaw as quickly as possible, and if not, the budget bill is to be submitted to the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw's Joint Public Accounts Committee one month ahead of third quarter implementation for scrutiny in the first week of 2011.

U Aye Mauk of Mahlaing Constituency said that not only Joint Bill Committee but also Joint Public Accounts Committee at first should make studies whether the tasks of the Union government need the decisions of the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw and tasks of the Union government were carried out with its prescribed authority. Depending on the submission on the studies, the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw will review it if the approval of Pyidaungsu Hluttaw is needed.

Due to emergence of the region/state governments, there were some changes in the budget of the State. At this juncture, it can be found that the budget deficit declined in the Union government. Moreover, original financial statement was changed and the accounts was inserted into the repaired accounts.

Generally, two joint committees are to continuously study the scrutiny of authority on the budget and time limit of the budget. Moreover, they are to submit some portions to be undertaken by the Hluttaw.

Chairman of the Joint Public Accounts Committee submitted a proposal to accept the report at the Hluttaw, the Hluttaw decided to accept it.

Secretary of the Joint Bill Committee U T Kun Myat explained the findings of the Joint Bill Committee and its remarks on Ward or Village-tract Administration Bill.

With regard to the bill, the Hluttaw representatives wishing to discuss the amendments directly concerning the different opinions between the two Hluttaws are to describe the briefed topic with their signatures and enlist after the meeting.

Pyidaungsu Hluttaw sent the Microfinance Bill approved by both Pyithu Hluttaw and Amyotha Hluttaw to the President on 15 November to sign it for promulgation. The bill was sent to Pyidaungsu Hluttaw with remarks of the President on 21 Nov. With regard to the bill, the representatives wishing to discuss the remarks of the President are to describe the briefed topic with their signatures and enlist after the meeting.

With regard to the Hluttaw affairs, the Speaker of the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw explained that speakers of two Hluttaws decided to complete the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw session on 25 November. As such, the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw will be convened soon. At that time, the Budget of the Union, National Planning of the State and the Union Taxation may be discussed. The uncompleted laws in the second regular session will be carried out at the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw. Therefore, the second regular session of the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw will be concluded after completion of all tasks on 25 November.

Today's session came to an end at 12.30 pm and the 6th day session will be held at 10 am on 25 November.—MNA

Tug-of-love children gassed by their mother in a Turkish hotel room

ISTANBUL, 22 Nov — Two young children were found dead after apparently being gassed by their mother, who also killed herself. A Europe-wide hunt had been launched to find the two youngsters — who were supposed to be in the custody of their British father — after their German mother, Elke Mellersh, abducted them. But the search ended in tragedy this weekend when police found the three bodies in a farmhouse in the seaside town of Soke, on Turkey's Aegean coast.

A court had given custody of Yaanis, eight, and Mira, six, to their father Justin Mellersh, 46, whose family lives in Lyndhurst, near Southampton. The children were reported missing in February last year and were last seen near Bremen in Germany. Reports from Turkey suggested the family died of carbon monoxide poisoning — possibly from a heater.—Internet

Chinese oil painting fetches $23.6 mln at auction

BEIJING, 22 Nov — An oil painting by contemporary artist Wu Guanzhong was sold late Saturday for 149.5 million yuan (about 23.6 million US dollars) at an auction held by Beijing-based auction house A&F. The painting, entitled "Ten Thousand Kilometres of the Yangtze River," was created between 1973 and 1974 and is considered to be one of the artist's best works.

Born in 1919 in the city of Yixing in east China's Jiangsu Province, Wu is widely recognized as the father of contemporary Chinese painting. He died in July 2010 at the age of 91. The high-profile deal, one of the latest amid the exponential growth of the Chinese fine art market in recent years, also marks the highest price to date for one of Wu's paintings.

When you gotta go, message will show where

BEIJING, 22 Nov — Cao Hui says she really likes hanging out on the capital's prosperous shopping streets, but she often can't find a convenient public toilet. "It's too difficult to find a washroom in shopping malls and you can't believe how long the waiting line is," said the 25-year-old civil servant. "And it is like finding a treasure box in a maze." Hopefully, her problem will be solved within four years with the introduction of a text messaging service that will tell people where to find bathrooms nearby.

The messages will give the locations and routes for the public bathrooms nearest to scenic spots or downtown areas, Xie Guomin, head of the environmental sanitation division of the Beijing Municipal Commission of City Administration and Environment, told China Daily on Sunday. "The specific measures of how to fix tourists' positions and the sender and the delivery means for the message are still under consideration," he said. ## Wenger wants Van Persie to sign up

Arsene Wenger wants Robin van Persie to sign a new contract

LONDON, 22 Nov — Arsenal manager Arsene Wenger wants striker Robin van Persie to stay at the club for the rest of his career. Wenger knows just what an "exceptional" talent he has in his captain and hopes to keep him at the Emirates Stadium for the long-term. The in-form striker took his tally for 2011 to 30 goals with a brace as the Gunners came from behind to win 2-1 at Norwich City on Saturday and maintain their march up the Barclays Premier League table.

First, van Persie -- who had netted a hat-trick at Chelsea before the international break -- tapped in from close range after good work by Theo Walcott to cancel out Steve Morison's shock opener. His second was an exquisite finish after being played into the right side of the Norwich penalty area following what was a fine advantage from referee Phil Dowd after a foul on Aaron Ramsey.

And Wenger feels there are few better in the modern game than the Gunners number 10. "Robin has some competitors there but he is one of the best of course," said the Arsenal manager.— Internet

Tottenham beats Villa 2-0, rises to 3rd in league

LONDON, 22 Nov—Tottenham Hotspur climbed to third place after Emmanuel Adebayor's brace sealed the victory against Aston Villa. Adebayor, on-loan from Manchester City, struck for the first time in two months with both goals arriving in the first half to lift his tally for the season to five.

Villa spent virtually the entire game trying to contain Spurs, who saw Harry Redknapp return to the dugout for the first time since undergoing a heart procedure, with Emile Heskey unable to convert the only chances they had.— Internet

Bayern, Man United, Inter eye last 16

LONDON, 22 Nov — Former European champions Bayern Munich, Manchester United and Inter Milan bid to book their places in the Champions League knockout stages in the fifth round of group matches on Tuesday. Bayern need a draw against Villarreal, who have lost all four games in Group A, to reach the last 16 while United must beat Benfica in a repeat of the 1968 European Cup final to guarantee their progress. Premier League leaders Manchester City face a tricky match at Napoli but they would also advance to the next stage with victory in southern Italy.

Inter need a draw at Turkey's Trabzonspor, who upset them 1-0 in their first meeting in Italy, to be sure of joining their neighbours AC Milan in the knockout stages.

FC Barcelona President Rosell to visit China for close links

MADRID, 22 Nov — FC Barcelona President Sandro Rosell will lead a delegation from the club to visit China between 25 and 28 November, it was announced by the club on Monday. The President of the reigning Spanish and European Champions will visit China in order to strengthen institutional and commercial links between Barca and the country. "We want to establish a permanent link with Chinese society," explained Rosell after signing an agreement with the company Inter Sports.

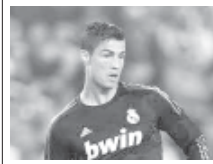

Rosell will spend three days in Beijing and Shanghai and will be accompanied by the club's vice president for economic affairs, Javier Faus, the director of the technological area, Didac Lee, director general, Antoni Rossich and the commercial and marketing director, Laurent Colette. The three days will be filled with meetings with local organisations and purely commercial meetings.

Barcelona will also be present and the gala held by the China Foundation for Disabled Persons, an entity led by Deng Pufang, the son of then top Chinese leader Deng Xiaoping, which works to help the 80 million handicapped people in China. Barca will contribute various items for the auction raised to help raise funds, among them a boot signed by Andres Iniesta, who scored the winning goal in the 2010 World Cup final, and four tickets to travel to Barcelona to attend a Champions League match.— Xinhua

Real Madrid's Cristiano Ronaldo says chants about Barcelona's Lionel Messi do not affect me

Real Madrid attacker Cristiano Ronaldo

MADRID, 22 Nov—Real Madrid attacker Cristiano Ronaldo has guaranteed that chants in support of Barcelona star Lionel Messi do not put him off his game. The 26-year-old was jeered in Portugal's 4-0 Euro 2012 qualifying win over Cyprus in September, in which a number of fans shouted the name 'Messi', referring to Barcelona's Lionel Messi, with whom the Madrid player has a well-documented rivalry.

Prior to the first leg of the Euro 2012 playoffs against Bosnia and Herzegovina, Ronaldo was greeted at the airport by chants in praise of the Barca man, before responding to laser-pointing fans with an obscene gesture. "It is the same thing if they sing that kind of chant or if they stay quiet," he told TF1. "Those chants do not provoke me, nor do they make me change my way of playing. I do not care about them." Ronaldo then played down his nomination for the 2011 FIFA Ballon d'Or award, stressing his sole focus is club matters.— Internet

British ace Murray considers pullout of ATP Finals

LONDON, 22 Nov—British top player Andy Murray suffered a bitter defeat at home as he was beaten by David Ferrer in straight sets in his first match and considered of pulling out of the ATP World Tour Finals on Monday. Murray, the world No 3, struggled to find his form during the meeting and lost to the world No 5 Spaniard 6-4, 7-5 in Group A's opening match.

"I had a problem with my groin," revealed Murray, who asked for medical timeout after the first set. "I didn't move particularly great today, but I still had opportunities." Murray broke first in both sets, but succumbed to a more consistent Ferrer, whom he defeated in the previous three meetings this year. "He's just very, very solid. He gives you very few points," said Murray.

Villas-Boas keeps believing

LONDON, 22 Nov — Villas-Boas claimed billionaire owner Roman Abramovich would not have paid a world record £13m to prise him from Porto this summer, only to sack him at the first sign of trouble.

Villas-Boas' side fell to their fourth defeat of the season against Liverpool

But Villas-Boas said: "It's not a question of the owner having patience. We have set out to build something new at this club and the club is committed to taking what we're building to the future. The owner didn't pay 15million euros to get me out of Porto to pay me another fortune to get out." — Internet

Djokovic recovers to beat Berdych at ATP finals

LONDON, 22 Nov — Novak Djokovic saved a match point in the third set against Tomas Berdych before winning 3-6, 6-3, 7-6 (3) Monday to avoid becoming the second upset of the day at the ATP World Tour Finals. Third-ranked Andy Murray struggled through an earlier 6-4, 7-5 loss to David Ferrer with a groin injury he fears could end his tournament. Murray said he would decide on Tuesday whether he will pull out.

"If it wasn't Slams or this event, I wouldn't have played," Murray said. Djokovic, who has been nursing a shoulder problem, withstood some spectacular hitting by the seventh-seeded Berdych, who had a point to win the match at 6-5 in the decider but put a forehand into the net. Berdych fell apart in the tiebreaker and a relieved Djokovic took his 2011 win-loss record to 70-4. "I wasn't very

World Toilet Summit kicks off in S China

HAIKOU, 22 Nov—The 11th World Toilet Summit and Expo kicked off Tuesday in Haikou, capital of South China's Hainan province. During the three-day summit, representatives from relevant institutions and enterprises worldwide will look into ways to improve the world's toilets and sanitation conditions. Demonstrations of novel sanitary wares will also be held during the event.

Jack Sim, founder of the World Toilet Organization (WTO) said he hopes people will join hands to create a better world with safe, comfortable and clean toilets.

Sim said that currently the number and condition of toilets in the world can not meet the needs of a growing global population.

Worldwide, there are currently 2.6 billion people (about 40 percent of the world's population) without access to clean toilets, and at least one billion toilets need to be built in order to solve this problem, according to Sim.

The WTO chief stressed that good toilet conditions can help promote the development of tourism, and he called for the building of more public toilets in tourist attractions in order to boost the tourist economy.

Jiang Dingzhi, Acting Governor of Hainan province said, as a province committed to building itself into a world-renowned tourist destination, Hainan needs to build more toilets and improve the management of its facilities.

The World Toilet Summit is an annual event that has been organized by the WTO since 2001.
