Sixth Meeting of Sixth SCWCSAG continues for second day

NAY PYI TAW, 28 Feb—The Sixth Meeting of the Sixth State Central Working Committee of the Sangha of All Ganas of the Republic of the Union of Myanmar continued for the second day at Maha Pasana Cave on Kaba Aye Hill, here, at 8 am today.

Vice-Chairman Sayadaw of the SCWCSAG Abbot of Myasikhon Monastery of Toungoo Agga Maha Pandita Bhaddanta Pandavamsa presided over the meeting, and Joint Secretary Sayadaw Agga Maha Pandita Bhaddanta Vijjodaya acted as master of ceremonies.

After reading the number of the State Central Working Committee of the Sangha of All Ganas, the MC Sayadaw announced the validity of the meeting.

Five Ovadaçariya Sayadaws of the Sixth Meeting were elected.

The MC Sayadaw supplicated on agenda of the meeting. Joint Secretary Sayadaws Agga Maha Pandita Bhaddanta Vayama and Agga Maha Pandita Bhaddanta Jotika replied to the suggestions submitted by member Sayadaws of the SCWCSAG.

In the afternoon, representative Sayadaws from nine Sangha Ganas from regions and states discussed Vinicçhaya affaris, religious affairs and education matters involved in the report of the State Sangha Maha Nayaka Committee in the one-year period, and the second day session came to an end.

At the second day session, wellwisher (U Maung Maung Swe Tin)-Dr Mya Thida Swe Tin and family of S1 Co of 33 on Bo Ya Nyunt Road in Dagon Township of Yangon offered alms meals to members of the Sangha of the meeting.—MNA

Myanmar: Next bright spot in Asia

Nowadays, Myanmar sees a lot of reforms since the civilian government has taken office.

Recent changes in Myanmar can draw the attentions of foreign investors. Based on the foreign investments, domestic companies' productivity would increase, thereby spurring the country's economic growth. But, investments of foreign companies alone cannot increase productivity of the domestic companies. All countries in the world have agreed that Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) can push the economic development of a country. So, most of the countries use FDI as a strategic tool for the country's development.

A country's economic development depends on microeconomic stability. Thanks to the FDI, the country would see an increase in microeconomic indicator, which generates more job opportunities and huge foreign investment, more exports and increase in balance of payment (BOP) ratio. And to enjoy the fruits of FDI, domestic companies need to have good human resources management and research and development (R&D). They can learn technologies and management systems of these foreign companies. The domestic workers would become skilled ones because of working in these companies. The FDI also brings mass production, technological transfer and access to export markets.

Myanmar has a high growth potential and could become the next economic frontier in Asia. So, Myanmar is to seize this golden opportunity through the agency of the FDI. Here, domestic companies and businesses need to be well aware of the FDI's negative effects. Due to a massive inflow of foreign investments, foreign companies and businesses might take up domestic market shares. Most Asian countries top the chart by using the FDI as a stepping stone to the development of their countries. The chance of becoming a next Asian Tiger is in the hands of Myanmar. Let's start our promising future right now!

Politics still in my blood: Hillary Clinton

WASHINGTON, 28 Feb—Secretary of State Hillary Clinton has said that politics is in her blood, and she couldn't help it when she that she believed President Barack Obama would win reelection. "Probably, my enthusiasm for the president got a little out of hand," Clinton told CNN in an interview broadcast on Sunday. Clinton, who lost her bid for the Democratic nomination in 2008, said politics is in her blood.

Chinese Navy fights piracy in Somalia

BEIJING, 28 Feb—The Chinese Navy is once again sending forces to Somalia to target piracy in the Gulf of Aden. China first began patrolling the waters along with an international flotilla in 2008. Since then, it's undertaken ten such missions—protecting some 4500 ships.

The farewell ceremony is becoming more and more familiar to the Chinese Navy these days. A fleet left the port Qingdao on Monday morning, ready to carry out its orders.

Yang Junfei, fleet commander, said, "Set Sail!" ready for duty." Ding Yiping, deputy commander of Chinese navy, said, "Set Sail!"

The fleet brings a destroyer, missile frigate, support ship, 2 helicopters and special forces to bear on the region—a total of 800 naval personnel are involved.

The UN Security Council has been urging member countries to combat piracy along the Somali coast since the 1990s. The Chinese Navy joined in 4 years ago and has been an active partner ever since. Last Thursday, The People's Liberation Army Navy held the International Symposium on Counter-Piracy and Escort Operations in China's eastern city of Nanjing. Delegations from more than 20 states and organizations gathered there to get to know more about each other.

Phil Haslam, staff captain of European Naval Force, said, "I represent the European Naval Force, which is based in London, and the tactical coordination the ships have, day to day, in the Gulf of Aden. I see this symposium is taking that coordination to another level."

Cao Weidong, senior researcher of Naval Research Institute, PLA, said, "The Chinese Navy hopes to build up a platform for international cooperation that will allow naval forces of different countries to familiarize themselves with each other. I hope the platform well-serves our anti-piracy goals. " In addition to combating piracy, the fleet will be continuing to offer human aid to countries in need.—Xinhua

Israeli defence minister heads to US to discuss Iran

JERUSALEM, 28 Feb—Israeli Defence Minister Ehud Barak on Tuesday headed to Washington for talks with senior US officials about the Iranian nuclear programme.

The Israeli minister's two-day US visit comes ahead of Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's and President Shimon Peres' scheduled visits next week, Xinhua reported. "There are some security issues that apply to the defence minister. These sensitive issues (that will be discussed in Netanyahu's visit) require early coordination and many talks," said a senior political source explaining the objective of Barak's visit.

Barak will meet senior US officials, including Vice President Joe Biden, Secretary of Defence Leon Panetta, National Security Advisor Tom Donilon and other security and intelligence figures. Prime Minister Netanyahu will leave for north America on Thursday, first to Canada where he will meet Canadian Prime Minister Stephen Harper, and then to Washington where he is to meet with US President Barack Obama as well as Secretary of State Hillary Clinton and senior congressmen.

18 killed in bus attack in N Pakistan

ISLAMABAD, 28 Feb—At least 18 people were killed and eight others injured when unknown gunmen opened fired on a passenger bus in Pakistan's northern district of Kohistan on Tuesday morning, said local media.

Local Urdu TV channel DAWN quoted local residents as saying that the firing incident took place early on Tuesday morning when a passenger bus heading from Rawalpindi, a sister city of the country's capital Islamabad, to Gilgit, capital city of Gilgit-Baltistan province in northern Pakistan, was attacked by unknown gunmen. The attack occurred on the Karakoram Highway in the Harban area of Kohistan, said the report.

There were at least 26 people on board when the bus was attacked, it said, adding that all the injured people have been shifted to hospitals in Kohistan and Gilgit.

Star Princess: A British cruise ship is leading the charge in the latest stand-off over the Falklands, as it sails towards the harbour at Port Stanley.—INTERNET

LONDON, 28 Feb—Two British cruise ships that visited the Falkland Islands were refused entry to an Argentinian port on Monday, amid tension over the disputed archipelago. The Adonia, owned by P&O Cruises, and the Princess Cruises vessel Star Princess were both blocked from entering Ushuaia in southern Argentina after both ships stopped at the Falklands on Saturday.

"We are very concerned to hear the Adonia and Star Princess have been refused access to the port of Ushuaia," said a spokesman for Britain's Foreign Office.

"There can be no justification for interference in free and legitimate commerce. "British diplomats in Argentina are urgently seeking to clarify the circumstances surrounding this incident, and we are in contact with the company concerned."

Tensions are running high between Britain and Argentina over the Falklands, which London controls but Buenos Aires claims, ahead of the 30th anniversary in April of the start of the war between the two nations over the islands.

Argentina has also reacted angrily to the deployment of Prince William to the Falklands as part of his job as a Royal Air Force search and rescue pilot, and to a planned fact-finding trip by British lawmakers next month.

Carnival UK, which owns both P&O and Princess Cruises, said in a statement the Adonia was now sailing towards Punta Arenas in Chile, its next port of call on an 87-night tour of South America.

Seven civilians killed in S Afghanistan blast

LASHKAR GAH, 28 Feb—Seven civilians were killed Monday in a blast in the southern Afghan Province of Helmand, a spokesman for provincial government said on Tuesday.

"Seven civilians were killed when a powerful blast occurred at around 4:00 pm local time on Monday in a compound in Naw Zad District of Helmand Province," spokesman Daud Ahmadi told Xinhua.

He said four women and three children were killed in the explosion that happened in a house in Sarkhdaz area of the district.

Ahmadi said it was not clear how the explosion happened, adding an investigation was launched to probe why the explosive was placed in the house.

Taleban militants have often attacked Afghan and NATO-led forces with homemade bombs or Improvised Explosive Devices (IEDs) but the lethal weapons also inflict casualties on civilians.

The number of civilian casualties has been soaring in the militancy-plagued Afghanistan as a total of 3,021 Afghan civilians have been killed in 2011 which indicates, an 8 percent rise in non-combatants' deaths compared with 2010, according to the United Nations annual report released in Kabul earlier this month.

NAV PYI TAW, 28 Feb.—The Pyidaungsu Hluttaw continued for the 16th day session at Pyidaungsu Hluttaw Hall of the Hluttaw Building, here, at 10 am today, attended by Speaker of Pyidaungsu Hluttaw U Khin Aung Myint, Speaker of Pyithu Hluttaw Thura U Shwe Mann and 561 Pyidaungsu Hluttaw representatives.

The session put one message on record and discussed one bill.

In the putting the message on record, the Speaker of Pyidaungsu Hluttaw read the message on reshuffle of ministers at Mandalay Region Government sent by the President, and the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw put the reassignments of U Phone Zaw Han as Minister for Finance and Revenue and U Aung Maung as Minister for Development Affairs at Mandalay Region Government on record.

With regard to National Planning Bill for 2012-2013 fiscal year, the Speaker of Pyidaungsu Hluttaw made clarification, saying that the Union Minister for National Planning and Economic Development, on behalf of the Union government, submitted the 2011-2012 FY National Planning Bill and the 2012-2013 FY National Planning Bill to the Hluttaw on the first day third regular session of the first Pyidaungsu Hluttaw held on 31 January 2012.

A total of 75 Hluttaw representatives discussed the plans in principle from the sixth day session on 7-2-2012 to the 10th day session on 13-2-2012. In this regard, nine Hluttaw representatives held discussions on the 2011-2012 FY National Planning Bill and another 66 representatives, the 2012-2013 FY National Planning Bill.

The Pyidaungsu Hluttaw Joint Bill Committee submitted the reports that the 2011-2012 FY National Planning Bill should be put on record and the 2012-2013 FY National Planning Bill should be undertaken in line with rules and regulations.

According to the submissions of some Hluttaw representatives that the National Planning Bills submitted by the Union government to the Hluttaw should be amended as a law, the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw coordinated with the Union Government. So, the improved 2011-2012 FY National Planning Bill was submitted to the Hluttaw. Thus, the Hluttaw decided to put the bill on record at the 13th day session of the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw on 22 February 2012 in line with the remarks of the Joint Bill Committee.

As the 2012-2013 FY National Planning Bill has been improved systematically, the bill will be submitted to the Hluttaw. The copies of amended bills have been distributed to Hluttaw representatives. In this regard, the bill was amended in form, but its presentations were similar to the previous bill. In amending the bill, the Chapter (III) Policy, Vision and Tasks of the previous bill were placed in Appendix (i); the formal Appendix (i) State-owned sector Investment Plans went to Appendix (ii); formal Appendix (ii) Sectors of Production, Service and Vision to Appendix (iii).

There is no any change in subject in the bill in discussing the principle and basic factors of the 2012-2013 FY National Planning Bill. Thus, the discussions of 66 Hluttaw representatives from 7 to 13 February will not be cancelled and it is still into existence.

On 23-2-2012, as the list was taken for those wishing to discuss matters related to 2012-2013 National Planning Bill and to submit proposals of amendment, a total of 28 Hluttaw representatives nominated themselves. The submissions of 15 representatives of 28 will be allowed to continuous discussions at the Hluttaw in principle and basic factor as their discussions have no amendment.

Those Hluttaw representatives are U Pauk Thang Htai of Chin State Constituency No. 3, Daw Mi Myint Than of Ye Constituency, U Steven Thabeik of Chin State Constituency No. 4, U Tin Maung Win of Mingaladon Constituency, U Aung Thein Lin of South Okkalapa Constituency, Dr Banya Aung Moe of Mon State Constituency, Dr Nay Lin of Seikkan Constituency, U Khin Maung Latt of Rakhine State Constituency No. 9, Dr Mya Oo of Bago Region Constituency No. 9, U Sai Thant Zin of Shan State Constituency No. 4, U Kyaw Ni Naing of Laukkai Constituency, U Win Oo of Yebyu Constituency, U Kyi Tha of Gwa Constituency, U Aye Mauk of Mahlaing Constituency and U Khet Htein Nan of Kachin State Constituency.

Although the remaining representatives have submitted proposals of amendment to the Hluttaw, it is necessary to amend the proposals of some representatives. They are U Paw Hlyan Lwin of Chin State Constituency No. 9, U Thein Yi of Htantabin Constituency, U Tha Win of Yankin Constituency, U Min Swe of Daik U

Constituency, U Soe Than of Twantay Constituency, U Win Myint of Pyay Constituency, U Maung Toe of Minhla Constituency, Dr Aye Maung of Rakhine State Constituency No. 1, U Win Than of Thabaung Constituency, U Myo Myint of Mandalay Region Constituency No. 6, U Aye Mauk of Mahlaing Constituency, U Myo Swe of Tanai Constituency, Daw Su Su Hlaing of Dagon Myothit (South) Constituency and U Kyaw Naing Htay of Indaw Constituency.

In submitting the proposals of amendment for the bill, it is necessary to exactly present the matters to allow reduction of project-wise implementation, to suspend the projects and to terminate the projects. The amount of money for the projects in the bill is not needed to be presented, and per cent of the work or titles of individual works (for example-to suspend, terminate and reduce 50 per cent of Shwelaung Dam Project among new projects of the Irrigation Department under the Ministry of Agriculture and Irrigation included on page number 100 of the Plan for State-owned Investment of the Appendix-ii) with signatures. The proposals of amendment must completely be presented with reasons and subjects included in the parts of the bill (bill, appendix).

The representatives' proposals to be amended among 14 representatives must be re-written in line with the rules and regulations. The representatives wishing to submit proposals of amendment and those wishing to submit more proposals including previous submissions of the representatives are to submit their proposals to the Director of the Hluttaw Office, not later than evening of 29 February (Wednesday).

At a time when the Hluttaw representatives have discussed the principles and basic factors of the bill, the President or the person assigned by the President, on behalf of the Union government, may make clarification. After that, the discussions of the principles and basic factors of the bill will come to an end. Thus, he said that he would like to inform the Hluttaw that process of tasks will be undertaken for submission and discussion of proposals of amendment, clarification of the Union level body member, seeking decisions of the Hluttaw and approvals in line with the prescribed procedures.

With regard to the 2012-2013 fiscal year, Union Minister for National Planning and Economic Development U Tin Naing Thein submitted the 2012-2013 fiscal year National Planning Bill and the 2012-2013 FY National Planning Bill, which are first and second years of the fifth five-year short-term national plan of the Government of the Republic of the Union of Myanmar to the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw on 31 January.

Pyidaungsu Hluttaw representatives suggested that the bill should be in line with the form of law. In accord with their suggestions, the bill was rewritten.

Likewise, the rewritten bill 2012-2013 is also submitted to the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw.

Nine Hluttaw representatives participated in the discussions on principle and basic factors of the 2012-2013 FY National Planning Bill.

U Khin Maung Latt of Rakhine State Constituency No. 6 said that there are many differences among the regions of Myanmar in geographical conditions such as hilly regions, plateaus, plains, inland regions, coastal regions and border areas. Moreover, these regions have differences in natural resources and human resources. As a result, drawing the plan must be depended on the actual conditions of the regions.

In the matter of roads construction projects covering in basic infrastructures which are crucial for nation building endeavors, Yathedaung and Myebon Townships in Rakhine State are located in plain region. But, it has yet to connect Sittway-An Union Road. Discussions on road networks are going on at Hluttaws. The connection of only one road in Rakhine State has not yet finished till now. Road transportation of Yathedaung and its environs do not include in 2012-2013 National Planning.

The National Planning is made up of projects in Regions and States. Like the developed countries, national development is to be implemented only after GDP and GNP of each region have been calculated systematically. Priority is to be given to the underdeveloped regions after considering advantages and disadvantages of the regions. Only then the country sees harmonious development.

U Tin Maung Win of Mingaladon Constituency said: A total of K 111.548 billion is proposed under the heading of border regions new roads development of National Planning Bill. The maintenance of new roads should not be. So, that proposed project should be cancelled.

A total of K 2.5 million is put under the heading of "Greening" of "Others" heading of National Planning. Ministry of Environmental Conservation and Forestry is undertaking the greening tasks and so do local authorities. So, Ministry of Border Affairs should use it under such exact headings as Minister's Office greening and training school greening. Otherwise, it should be used in other productive development tasks.

U Sai Thant Zin of Shan State Constituency No.4 discussed: An analysis of Myingyan (Nabuaing) Industrial Zone Project and which is one of the ongoing project of Directorate Industrial Planning Department under the Ministry of Myanmar Industrial Development should be carried out. Reviews on test running of Paper and Pulp Mill (Thabaung) of Myanmar Paper and Chemical Industries, huge investment and difficulties of projects and ongoing projects, works and supplementary works of No.1 Heavy Industries, and expenditures and heavy costs of industries and supplementary works of No.2 Heavy Industries under the Ministry of Industry, are to be carried out.

Hluttaw representatives have not enough time to scrutinize these projects. It would be most appropriate if all projects which will take too much time for scrutiny are not put in this year National Planning. So, based on the facts that projects do not benefit people, the projects are not yet as much important as staff's day-to-day living status and there needs to have budget analysis, which is a first step towards a democratic country, Ministry of Myanmar Industrial Development and Ministry of Industry should not put unproductive projects in the National Planning, with the aims of emergence of national planning and budgets in line with the monetary policies and fiscal policies.

U Kyi Tha of Gwa Constituency said: Ministry of Industry has proposed to make state-own investments of K 169901.036 million in 2012-2013 fiscal year. Running of Myanmar Pharmaceutical and Foodstuff Industries, cement factories, glass factories projects, and paper mills and pulp mills under the Myanmar Paper and Chemical Industries should be carried out, based on investments, actual productions and profits and losses.

Dr Banyan Aung Moe of Mon State Constituency No.7 discussed that he would like to advise to stop some unproductive projects being undertaken by Ministry of Myanmar Industrial Development and Ministry of Agricultural and Irrigation and projects and works which cause a loss to the country's finance, and cut some expenditures on these projects. The reason why he gave advice for cutting budget expenditures was to raise staff's salary, to calculate and review it after taking times for avoiding losses and develop the country's economy.

Sale of state-own workshops and factories to private entrepreneurs and running of joint-venture business between private sector and the government should be carried out. The government-owned factories and workshops should run for profits.

Public companies and companies will emerge after opening stock share markets and sell shares to public and companies.

Dr Mya Oo of Bago Region Constituency (9) said: Only when education and health sectors are merged into poverty alleviation tasks, will the goals of poverty alleviation be achieved. In education sector, poverty alleviation should be prioritized, fund for rural healthcare should be established and drawing on the fund should be avoided. Initial healthcare should be provided to townships, sub-townships and rural areas effectively for ensuring public health. Fitness of youths including students should be extensively monitored.

In objectives prescribed in the law of the Ministry of Health, figures of Millennium Development Goals and figures related to maternity, infant, child, malaria, TB and HIV should be mentioned exactly. National Plan for 2012-2013 fiscal year is seconded.

U Steven Thabeik of Chin State Constituency (4) said: the accuracy of figures is important in calculating GDP of the whole nation. If the figures are far from approximation, the investment ratio and planning will not be accurate. Myanmar's investment is lower than that of neighbours on average between 2005-2006 fiscal year and 2010-2011 fiscal year. In this period of modest investment, some ministries squandered millions from the fund of the country in implementing projects which were failures.

Though projects drafted by respective ministries for 2012-2013 fiscal year with huge fund estimated are submitted for good purposes, the projects, which could not give immediate profit to the country, should be delayed as the country is still undeveloped and cannot make huge investment now. Investment, taxation, budget of Chin State and other regions and states and drafting of anti-corruption law should be considered in fundamental principles of National Planning Bill for 2012-2013 fiscal year submitted by the Ministry of Finance and Revenue.

Daw Mi Myint Than of Ye Constituency said: Transportation sector should be extended by drafting National Transportation Policy in accord with need of the people, economic profitability and other requirements. The rail transportation should set sight on running electric train. For all-round transportation in transportation, container transportation should be established. Staff should be employed for each department and trained to improve their capacity. The emergence of modern railroads should be implementing by replacing wooden sleepers with concrete ones. A system investigating passenger coaches and cargos should be adopted and enforced for foolproof inspection. If there is insufficient workforce, new staff should be recruited under directives. Running hours of the train should be reduced.

As the salary of the government personnel could be decreased if the unprofitable projects are suspended and irrelevant expenses are reduced in 2012-2013 fiscal year, Budget for 2012-2013 should be redrawn.

U Paul Htan Htai of Chin State Constituency (3) said: The Section (363) of the Constitution clearly states, "The Union may assist and protect the religions it recognizes to its utmost." The constitution should transparently portray the fact. Without adding any fund to the Ministry of Religious Affairs in 2012-2013 budget, changes should be made in the current budget of the ministry and expenditures for Christian, Islam, Hindu and other religions should be included.

Today's session concluded at 1.25 pm and the 17th day session will be held at 10 am on 1 March.—MNA

Over 120-year monastery attracts tourists

NYAUNGSHWE, 28 Feb— Shwe Yanpyae monastery is one of the tourist destinations in Inlay region of Shan State.

The monastery is located on Shwenyaung-Nyaungshwe road, one and a half miles to Nyaungshwe.

“As it is an ancient monastery decorated with ancient works, the edifice should be preserved without losing its original style. A lot of ancient Myanmar architectural works can be seen at the monastery. In fact, it is a tourist attraction site,” said a tour guide.

Shwe Yanpyae Monastery was built with wooden floral arabesques, tiers, oval shaped windows, doors and gilt teak posts of Yatanabon era architectural works. As it is a master-piece work of ancient artists and sculptors, the monastery is an observatory site not only for the tourists but also for researchers. 22 tourists robbed in Mexico bus assault

PUERTO VALLARTA, 28 Feb—Mexican security officials say an armed group has robbed 22 foreign tourists who were travelling by bus near the coastal city of Puerto Vallarta.

The city's public safety secretary said in a statement that the tourists weren't injured in the Thursday night attack although their possessions were seized.

The statement said a group of hooded attackers intercepted the bus while it was passing through the town "El Nogalito." The statement didn't disclose the nationalities of the robbed tourists and police hadn't found the suspects.

The US State Department recently warned against nonessential travel to parts of Jalisco State, where Puerto Vallarta is located. The warning didn't name Puerto Vallarta itself.—Internet

Fuel tank fire extinguished on Texas island

HOUSTON, 28 Feb—A blaze caused by an explosion at a tank containing light crude on the Texas island of Galveston was extinguished early Friday, officials said.

The blaze was put out at about 3 am local time on Friday, the Galveston Fire Department said. A storage tank containing 12,000 barrels of oil was reportedly burned. The fire broke out after an explosion at 7 am local time on Thursday. At least one firefighter has been injured, suffering smoke inhalation, according to local media reports.

A shelter-in-place was ordered at Texas A&M University at Galveston, and was lifted after two hours. The cause of the explosion was still under investigation.

People regret 'not saving more money' most in life

LONDON, 28 Feb—Wishing they'd saved more money is what people regret most in life, followed by not working harder at school, according to a survey.

Starting smoking, not exercising enough and not seeing more of the world are also in the top five biggest regrets revealed by Electric Zebra, the company that makes cigarette substitutes.

Three-quarters of the 2,000 people quizzed by the "electronic" cigarette firm also said that they did not believe it was possible to live a life without regrets, the Daily Express reported.

On average people in Britain spend 44 minutes every week thinking about things we should have done differently.

The survey found that the biggest area of regret is love lives (20 percent), family (18 percent), career (16 percent), health and finance (both 14 percent). But two-thirds said their regrets led them to think more positively and they learnt from their mistakes. Nearly half said regrets influenced the way they live. "It's significant that 64 percent of people list taking up smoking as one of their biggest regrets," said Dr Sarah Brewer, medical adviser to Electric Zebra.—Internet

Fire forces Daytona 500 to pause with 40 laps left

DAYTONA BEACH, 28 Feb—First came the rain. Then came the fire. Everything that could go wrong with this Daytona 500 did go wrong, and the first NASCAR race in primetime television could be remembered for everything but the winner. That's because there still was no winner more than four hours after the green flag, which already had been delayed a day.

Emergency workers try to extinguish a fire on a jet dryer during the NASCAR Daytona 500 auto race at Daytona International Speedway in Daytona Beach, Fla., on 27 Feb, 2012. Juan Pablo Montoya's car struck the dryer during a caution period after something on his car broke.—INTERNET

Journeyman driver Dave Blaney was leading when a problem with Juan Pablo Montoya's car sent him spinning under caution into a safety truck. The truck, which holds 200 gallons of jet kerosene, burst into flames. Montoya's car slid into the grass, and he gingerly climbed from it as fire trucks rushed to the scene. The inferno raged on, and NASCAR red-flagged the race with 40 laps remaining.

NASCAR officials were examining the track surface to determine whether the race could continue. "About the time you think you've seen about everything, you see something like this," NASCAR president Mike Helton said.

"I think we, like everybody else, would like to see this race finished. This is within reason, and we think we can do that within reason. We've waited this long. Another 30 minutes is worth trying to finish the 40 laps." Jet fuel poured down the surface of Turn 3 at Daytona International Speedway after the accident, creating a fiery lasting image of NASCAR's biggest race of the year.—INTERNET

Ferguson heaps praise on 'amazing' Giggs

Manchester United boss relieved after veteran midfielder's late winner at Norwich

Ryan Giggs scored the winning goal for Manchester United late on at Carrow Road.—INTERNET

LONDON, 28 Feb — Manchester United manager Sir Alex Ferguson said it was fitting that Ryan Giggs scored the winner at Norwich. The 38-year-old

Giggs marked his 900th appearance for the club in all competitions with a goal in injury time that sealed a dramatic 2-1 victory. "To mark his 900th game with the winning goal with the last kick of the ball...he deserved it for the services he has given to our club," said Ferguson.

"For a player to play for the one club for 900 games is exceptional and it won't be done again. An amazing career and an amazing man." Ferguson admitted his side were second best for spells of the match at Carrow Road against a Norwich side enjoying a successful first season back in the Barclays Premier League. "We were lucky," added Ferguson. "In the first half I thought Norwich were the better team.

I thought they played better football than we did." Meanwhile, Giggs said the club's ability for late dramatics is partly down to a determination not to accept defeat. "Right through the squad—for all the time I've been here—we've always had that ability to not give in and score late goals," he said. "To play 900 games for this club, who I've grown up supporting, is special—it's a great day for me. I am sure there will be more twists and turns in the title race and I expect more drama and late goals."—INTERNET

Wenger savours comeback victory

Arsenal boss praises his side's spirit after stunning fightback against Tottenham

LONDON, 28 Feb — Arsenal manager Arsene Wenger says his side are still alive after Sunday's stunning 5-2 Barclays Premier League victory over north London rivals Tottenham. The Gunners, who have recently suffered morale-sapping defeats against AC Milan in the UEFA Champions League and Sunderland in the FA Cup, were facing the prospect of another loss when Tottenham went 2-0 up with first-half goals from Louis Saha and Emmanuel Adebayor. But Arsenal fought back, scoring through Bacary Sagna and Robin van Persie before half-time before Tomas Rosicky and Theo Walcott (twice) completed the sensational comeback. And Wenger believes the win over third-placed Tottenham will give his side renewed belief they can finish in the top four. "Arsenal are alive more than anybody thought before the game," he said. "Today we gave a performance that on the spirit side, the technical side, the drive of the whole team, on the style of the game we want to play, everything was perfect despite a very bad start. "I felt in the first five minutes Tottenham started well, after that it was all us for 85 minutes.

"We were always on top of the game. We were 2-0 down but refused to lose the game and kept going no matter what happened. "Once we were back to 2-2 you could see that if we maintained the pace, we would win the game. We had a great spirit." Arsenal are now seven points behind Tottenham and are level on points with fifth-placed Chelsea with 12 matches left in the League campaign.—INTERNET

Djokovic wins in first match since Australian Open

DUBAI, 28 Feb — Top-ranked Novak Djokovic played his first match since winning the Australian Open, shaking off the rust to beat Cedrik-Marcel Stebe 6-4, 6-2 on Monday in the first round of the Dubai Tennis Championships. Marko Djokovic—ranked 868 spots below his brother—had a less successful day. The younger Djokovic, a wildcard entry into the tournament, was bounced in the opening round with a 6-3, 6-2 loss to Andrey Golubev of Kazakhstan.

A few hours before his victory, Novak Djokovic was courtside for his brother's match. Djokovic serves as a mentor of sorts for the 20-year-old Marko and said it was hard to watch his brother struggling. The five-time

Top-ranked Novak Djokovic

Grand Slam champion acknowledged it must be difficult for Marko and his other tennis-playing brother, 16-year-old Djordje, to deal with comparisons to their elder sibling.

"In the end, he has to face this, I guess, pressure in a way for having Djokovic surname," Djokovic said of Marko. "All over the world where he plays tennis, I guess he has to face this pressure that is not necessary for him at this age. It's his burden, and he's very committed. He wants to succeed in tennis."

Djokovic had not played a match in nearly four weeks—and it showed at times. He broke Stebe to go up 1-0 but had to save two break points in the fourth game as he struggled with the German's return game. Stebe pushed the set to 5-4 and deuce before Djokovic hit his first ace and another good serve which the German returned long. Djokovic had an easier second set, breaking twice.

Groupama, Puma struggle at ocean race summit

AUCKLAND, 28 Feb — France's Groupama and American team Puma were slugging it out for the lead well to the north of their rivals on Monday as the Volvo Ocean Race entered a crucial 24 hours in Leg four. Seven days after leaving Sanya in China, bound for Auckland, New Zealand, the boats were finally within reach of the trade winds that should catapult them south to complete the 4,000 nautical miles remaining in just 10-12 days.

After stealing the lead from Camper/Team New Zealand on Sunday, Groupama held a commanding position in the Pacific Ocean as they started to turn south, finally pointing towards the finish line after days of sailing east. But the American crew on Puma were hitting the highest speeds around 40 nm to their north, with everything depending on which of the two boats reaches the trade winds first.—INTERNET

Villas-Boas unsure of Chelsea owner's backing

LONDON, 28 Feb — Andre Villas-Boas is unsure if he has the backing of Chelsea owner Roman Abramovich and wonders if he will be sacked in the same way as predecessor Carlo Ancelotti was last May, the Portuguese coach said on Monday. "We are now in the exact same moment as last year," the under-fire Villas-Boas told Portugal's TSF radio. "It is an exact copy.

"I think I have felt the confidence from Abramovich but... the pattern of behaviour of the owner has led to a downfall (of coaches) in similar situations or even 'better' situations. Rory McIlroy is on the fast track to No 1

Rory McIlroy, of Northern Ireland, hits up the seventh fairway against Hunter Mahan in the final round during the Match Play Championship golf tournament on 26 Feb, 2012, in Marana, Ariz. —INTERNET

MARANA, 28 Feb — Hunter Mahan figured out the fuss over Rory McIlroy without any help. Mahan listened, but was not surprised, when fans called out McIlroy's name along the fairways of Dove Mountain. There is a certain appeal about Boy Wonder that makes it hard for people not to stare when he walks past them.

Mahan agrees with all the talk about McIlroy's bid to become No 1. He just wanted to make sure it didn't happen at his expense Sunday in the Match Play Championship. Mahan, as much as any American player, has seen this day coming. They first played against each other three years ago in the Match Play — it was McIlroy's pro debut in America — and the 22-year-old from Northern Ireland birdied the last two holes for a 1-up win in the second round.

A year later, Mahan and Zach Johnson faced McIlroy and Graeme McDowell in a foursomes match at the Ryder Cup. The Americans were 3 down after just seven holes and wound up losing. So when Mahan talked about his tough road to the championship match, and how he had to beat five great players to get there, he quickly added, "I've got to beat one more incredible player to win." That's what Mahan did Sunday to capture his second World Golf Championship title.— Internet

Roddick hopes for turnaround at Delray Beach

Andy Roddick

DELRAY BEACH, 28 Feb—Andy Roddick is hoping to turn around his dismal start to the season at the Delray Beach International Tennis Championships. The fourth-seeded Roddick, who has slipped to No 30 in the rankings, usually does well in the first couple of months of the year. He traditionally has fared well at the indoor tournaments in February—he's won the Memphis and San Jose titles three times each.

But he's battling injuries. A right hamstring injury forced him to abandon his second-round match at the Australian Open, and he hurt his right ankle during his opening match at San Jose two weeks ago. Roddick will face Philipp Petzschner of Germany in the first round at Delray Beach on Tuesday night. The American is 2-3 this year, his worst start since 2001. "Honestly, I'm not as concerned with ranking,"

Roddick said. "I just want to get into a flow again rather than some days on, some days off. I just want to play continuously for a while."

In an all-American first-round match on Monday, Ryan Sweeting swept Donald Young 6-1, 6-1 on a windy day near the beach. Eighth-seeded Bernard Tomic of Australia also advanced, cruising past wild card Tommy Haas 6-4, 6-3. Sweeting never offered Young a break-point opportunity in the 52-minute match. He also won 21 of 23 first-serve points that went in play. Young struggled with his serve and was broken on four of nine break chances he presented to Sweeting.

Stewart Downing backs Steven Gerrard for England captaincy

LONDON, 28 Feb — England winger Stewart Downing believes Liverpool team-mate Steven Gerrard is the perfect candidate to replace recently deposed captain John Terry. Caretaker boss Stuart Pearce is yet to announce who will lead England against the Netherlands on Wednesday. Liverpool captain Gerrard is one of the leading contenders to replace Terry, who was stripped of the role by the Football Association this month. "If he's picked to do it then I'm sure he will do it well," said Downing.

"It's the manager's decision, but he has captained Liverpool for a number of years and he's done it well. "He's a big player for Liverpool and England and a great influence on the players. He drives teams on. "If he's given the England captaincy then great." Gerrard, 31, skippered England during their 2010 World Cup campaign after Manchester

United defender Rio Ferdinand missed the tournament through injury. Meanwhile, midfielder James Milner insists England's inexperienced forwards have the quality to hurt the Netherlands at Wembley.
